 Thursday, 29/5 – Location: La Curandera

10.00 AM - Opening doors

GAIA OPENING CEREMONY

A sacred welcome by Huni Kuin tribal representatives from the Brazilian Amazon.

"Water, Our Muse"

George Gaupp-Berghausen (musician & energy medicine author) introduces water as the guiding force behind this year's theme.

11:30 AM – Gaia Award Finalist Screenings + Q&A

Watch the 3 finalists of the Gaia Award and meet the creators behind these powerful films.

12:30 PM – Panel: Mother Water & Mother Earth: Women, Earth & Frequencies

Feminine Energy as a Portal for Life, Harmony & Regeneration.

This conversation weaves together ancestral wisdom and cutting-edge science to explore the feminine as a guiding force in regeneration—of life, culture, and the Earth itself. Honoring the sacred cycles of birth, death, and rebirth, we will dive into the roles of Mother Water and Mother Earth as life-giving portals, and the rise of feminine leadership in today's transitional time. We will examine sustainability in entertainment and creative industries, the power of frequency and intuitive intelligence, and the essential role women play in sustainable regenerative systems across history and into the future.

Flux Moderator: Jurgis Did

Panelists: Helena Norberg-Hodge (Founder Local Futures), Uri Fruchtmann (Film producer), Mozhdah Jamalzadah (Afghan actress) & Seema Ghani (Afghan activist), Charlotte Lubert (Film producer), Jorge Diaz & Kogi Representative

AFTERNOON – MUSIC AS MEDICINE

3:30 PM – Opening Performance

Andres Coll & Baile Payés – Traditional Ibicenco Dance

4:30 PM – Panel: Music as Medicine – Frequency, Healing & Memory

The Vibrational Power of Sound to Heal and Unite. This panel explores the ancient and emerging understanding of music as a tool for healing, coherence, and connection. From the tribal use of rhythm and chant to maintain ancestral bonds, to modern discoveries in cymatics and vibrational therapy, we'll examine how sound affects the human system—especially through water, our primary conductor. We'll also reflect on how the entertainment industry has, in many ways, forgotten the sacred origins of music as medicine, and how artists and producers today can reclaim this wisdom to create soundscapes that heal, harmonize, and reawaken.

Flux moderator: Jurgis Did

Panelists: Diego Torán (House of Frequency), Donna D'Cruz (Musician & Meditation Guide),
Maria Valdivia (Spiritual leader), Andrés Coll (Musician & performer)

5:15 PM - Music Break by Romana Alarcón (Singer and voice therapist)

5:30 PM – Panel: The Evolution of the Music Business: From Exploitation to Regeneration

Decentralization, Circular Economies & the Future of Artist Empowerment. This panel takes a critical look at the current state of the music industry—still largely shaped by top-down, hierarchical systems that prioritize profits for executives over fair outcomes for artists. As awareness grows, a new vision is emerging: one rooted in regenerative principles, circular economies, and decentralized platforms that redistribute power and value. Together, we'll explore what this transition could realistically look like from where we stand today. What tools, technologies, and models are already disrupting the old system? What cultural and structural shifts are required for true equity, sustainability, and artistic freedom?

Flux Moderator: Jurgis Dib

Panelists: Tom Silvermann (Entertainment Executive), Serene Sass (Conscious Music), Sophie Schnapp (Earth % Representative), Shawn Pereira (Singer and musician)
